	Important Fee Information for Students: Enrollment-Based student fees are non-refundable once classes begin. Full Time Enrollment: If you are considered full-time at any point on or after the official first day of classes you will be charged full time fees. Summer Session Fees: Students are required to pay instructional fees for each Summer Session they are registered. Students enrolled in multiple summer sessions may be subject to additional fees depending on the combination of sessions. Session II is treated as a distinct summer session for billing purposes, therefore students enrolled in Sessions I & III are charged one set of fees. Students enrolled in Session II and any other session (I or III) are charged an additional set of fees. Winter Session Fees: If enrolled in a combined 12+ credits during the Winter and Spring, full time fees apply.

All Academic Excellence Fee (AEF) charges are approved by the CUNY Board of Trustees (BoT). The most recent CUNY BoT resolution for Baruch AEF charges can be found at: https://www.cuny.edu/about/trustees/meetings-of-the-board. The May 2025 CUNY BoT AEF resolution approved changing AEF to per credit, year-round, for most Baruch graduate programs. The MS in Mental Health Counseling program was not included in the May 2025 BoT resolution so will continue to be charged on a per semester basis (a "semester" is a Fall or Spring term only).
